

Heritage Center Class Schedule

www.heritagecenter.ws

CLASS BEGINS SEPTEMBER 20, 2010

HC 038 Christian Counseling/Pastoral Care-Dr. Jacqueline Nelson & Rev. Gwendolyn Pettway
Course description TBA

HC 040 Denominational History and Doctrine-Rev. Aaron Chapman
An overview of denominational history, doctrine, and polity.

Class begins January 3, 2011

HC 010 Writing and Biblical Research-Rev. Joy Challenger
An overview of Christian biblical theology with the intent to put students in touch with practical application of biblical truths and doctrines. Assist the student in writing sentences, paragraphs, reports, essays and research papers on theological topics using Standard English writing procedures.

HC 041 Homiletics-Rev. Edward L. Branch
An introduction to the art of preaching with emphasis on theory, sermon structure, development and delivery. Students will have the opportunity to deliver at least one fully prepared sermon in class. .

Class begins March 28, 2011

HC 004 Survey of the Bible-Rev. Carolyn DuBose
An introduction to the Bible-God's inspired Word-and it's content. Reading of the Bible in its particular context will be supplemented with information and readings on biblical times, geography, and history.

HC 023 Christian Education in the Black Church-Rev. Darryl Moore
This course will explore the role of educational ministry within the Black Church context. An Afro-centric approach will be utilized placing emphasis upon the synthesis of African heritage, biblical faith, and educational approaches that are relevant to the needs and conditions of African-American people. This course will examine the tasks and purposes of Christian Education, the role of teacher training within the Black Church, the unique challenges that confront Christian educators in the Black Church, as well as Afro-centric models of Christian Education.

11630 Steel~Detroit, MI. ~48227~312-835-4173~info@heritagecenter.ws